

CASA MYRNA

July 7, 2016

Ms. Shannon Roddy, Chairperson
Mr. Jim Foley, Volunteer Chair
ASIS International, Boston Chapter

Dear Shannon and Jim:

Thank you and the members of ASIS Boston Chapter for your generous donation of school supplies valued at $7,500 total for the children and survivors Casa Myrna serves. Your gift has lifted a huge burden off the shoulders of parents who are working hard to get back on their feet and provide for their families. Your kindness has also helped dozens of children feel excited about their first day back at school. Thank you for bringing smiles to the faces of these brave young students.

Every day I see firsthand how you make a difference. Thanks to you, survivors and their children receive the essential resources they need to thrive as they escape abuse and build brighter futures for themselves and their families. Your kindness sends a beautiful message of goodwill to survivors and their children, showing them that their community cares for them and is cheering them on. Thank you for your commitment not only to supporting survivors but also to preventing domestic violence through awareness and by creating a community of conscience where domestic violence is not tolerated.

I hope that I will be able to thank you and your colleagues in person at one of Casa Myrna's upcoming events celebrating our fortieth anniversary. In the meantime, I send you my best wishes for a safe and joyful summer.

Yours in service,

Stephanie Brown
Chief Executive Officer
