MASSACHUSETTS ASSOCIATION OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE EDUCATION

CALL FOR PAPERS, PRESENTATIONS, AND PARTICIPATION

MACJE in conjunction with Massasoit Community College and the MCC Department of Criminal Justice are pleased to announce a statewide Criminal Justice Conference to be held at the Massasoit Conference Center in Brockton, MA, on Friday October 13, 2017 from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The theme of the conference is:

"The Courts - Corrections Connection: Probation, Parole, Mandatory Sentencing, and Criminal Justice Reform in Massachusetts"

Among the anticipated topic areas of discussion are the following:

- The Courts
- Corrections
- Criminal Justice Education
- Program Certification and Accreditation

Papers and Presentations on any area of Criminal Justice Education will be considered. Presentation space and length of presentations will be determined based on response, space, and time available. Early submissions are encouraged.

Criminal Justice practitioners, academics and researchers are invited to submit an abstract of 150 words or less by September 5, 2017. Conference registration includes continental breakfast, luncheon, and the opportunity to network in the growth of MACJE in its efforts to unite academics and practitioners in Massachusetts. The goal is to further the progressive sharing of research and evidence-based practices.

If you have any questions about the conference please contact Henry DiCarlo at hdicarlo@massasoit.mass.edu or Mark Beaudry at mhbeaudr@us.ibm.com
